

Unconventional- Nashville's Music City Center is a stunning 152-page publication documenting the extraordinary artwork found throughout Nashville's new convention center. Striking photography and informative essays catalog the impressive collection of public art and how it complements the iconic architecture of the facility. The commemorative 12" x 12" art book is available in either a hardcover Case-bound with book jacket version ($65.00); or as a soft-cover Perfect-bound with gatefold covers ($49.95). Both versions are Smythe-Sewn and printed on Athens Silk paper.
